

Print this page Close

Gwinnett school district approves TADs

By Patrick Fox
The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

6:58 p.m. Thursday, November 12, 2008

The Gwinnett board of education voted unanimously Thursday evening to approve an agreement for the formation of five tax allocation districts.

Board members said the measure will foster revitalization in areas of the county in need of help.

District officials estimate the move will cost $20 million in forfeited property tax revenue over the TADs' 25 year terms, but it will bring in $25 million in added revenue to the district each year after that.

Find this article at:

<http://www.ajc.com/news/gwinnett/gwinnett-school-district-approves-195683.html>

Print this page Close