Gwinnett Place CID Event Connects Businesses With Public Safety Officials

Making Gwinnett a safer place to live, work and play is always top priority for Gwinnett citizens. Recently, the Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District (CID) used its first-ever lunch and learn session to discuss just that -- Gwinnett's safety -- by bringing local businesses together with the public safety personnel serving their area. The event raised discussions on everything from crime prevention to methods of curbing graffiti. An overall positive session, the Gwinnett Place CID is looking to hold more sessions in the future.
