

Gwinnett Place CID seeks input through online survey

As of Saturday, October 22, 2011

By Camie Young (1053)
camie.young@gwinnettdaily.com

#DULUTH – Business leaders are asking for input on transportation in one of Gwinnett's central shopping districts.

#The Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District, a self-taxing business organization, is conducting the online mobility survey.

#The purpose, a notice said, is to understand transportation options and their impact on quality of life as part of a Livable Centers Initiative study. Participants can share their opinions on existing travel conditions and how they would like to see them improved.

#The survey, available at http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/Gwinnett_LCI_Mobility_Survey, will be open until Nov. 7.