

GBJ Staff

Property owners unite for community wellbeing

Diverging Diamond Interchange/I-85 at Pleasant Hill Rd.

Business and property owners across Gwinnett and N. Fulton understand the value of good investments, especially when it comes to sacrificing hard-earned money for their community's well being. Their voices are unified through community improvement districts (CIDs) – defined areas where businesses pay additional taxes to fund projects. Learn what your and neighboring business communities have in the works.

CIDs Operating in Gwinnett and N. Fulton

Braselton LifePath CID

Spanning portions of Gwinnett, Hall and Barrow counties, along Ga. State Routes 347 and 211, this district administers and funds the

