

April 10, 2014
For Immediate Release

Joe Allen 678-924-8171

Gwinnett Place CID Reelects Members To Board of Directors

Leo Wiener and Melanie Alfredsson unanimously reelected

(DULUTH)—Two members of the Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District were reelected to three-year terms Wednesday as members of the organization’s Board of Directors.

Leo Wiener, a founding Board member who has served since 2005, has chaired the GPCID for the last two years. Wiener is a principal and partner with Glenwood Development Company, LLC. Glenwood Development is the owner of Mall Corners shopping center on Pleasant Hill Road.

Melanie Alfredsson is the Store Manager for JC Penney at Gwinnett Place Mall. She has 32 years of experience in all facets of the retail industry.

Both members were unanimously elected to the Board at the April 9th GPCID monthly meeting.

“This is a very productive Board of Directors, and we’re very pleased with the reelection of these two members,” said Board member Mark Williams. “We are looking forward to continuing the progress we’ve had.”

“Our CID has been very successful in transforming the area,” said Executive Director Joe Allen. “We’ve seen major traffic improvements like the new Diverging Diamond Interchange at Pleasant Hill Road over I-85, significant pedestrian improvements such miles of new sidewalks and streetscapes, and positive momentum occurring with the creation of new jobs and economic development incentives. Our Board has done a great job leading these efforts.”