

GWINNETT PLACE COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT

Media Release

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Joe Allen

Jallen@gwinnettplacecid.com

678-924-8171

Courtyard Atlanta Duluth/Gwinnett Place Completes $2 Million Renovation

Duluth-- The Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District (GPCID) would like to congratulate Courtyard Atlanta Duluth/Gwinnett Place for completing $2 million in renovations.

“Like the Courtyard Atlanta Duluth/Gwinnett Place, we are seeing more and more area stakeholders throughout Gwinnett’s central business district at Gwinnett Place re-investing in their businesses and properties,” said Joe Allen, Executive Director of GPCID. “It is because of the dedication of businesses like Courtyard that our area continues to thrive.”

Recently completing a floor-to-ceiling renovation, Courtyard Atlanta Duluth/Gwinnett Place gives today’s travelers heading to the Peach State a sweeter place to work, relax, dine and make memories.

As one of the premier hotels in Gwinnett County, GA, Courtyard has unveiled the final product of a $2 million renovation, inviting guests to relax in redesigned public and private spaces. From the second visitors step through the hotel’s front doors, they’ll be greeted with a state-of-of-the-art lobby seamlessly blending style and function. Chic décor surrounds flexible seating areas where complimentary Wi-Fi and convenient outlets are available. Whether getting ready for a meeting, catching up on emails or relaxing between adventures, visitors will find the new lobby to be a perfect gathering spot. An interactive touch-screen GoBoard has also been installed, giving guests easy access to the latest news and airport information.

Highlighting the new lobby experience is The Bistro – Eat. Drink. Connect., giving guests a convenient place to indulge without having to the leave the hotel in Duluth, GA. Open for breakfast and dinner daily, the stylish eatery offers an array of healthy and hearty meals that promise to satisfy even the pickiest of palates. Visitors looking for an energy boost will find specialty Starbucks beverages served during the day and an assortment of beer, hand-crafted cocktails and wine by the glass available in the evenings.

Winding down after a busy day just got better in the Duluth, GA hotel’s renovated guest rooms and suites. Capturing a contemporary vibe, rooms feature a soothing color palette with pops of color, creating an oasis for lounging or staying productive. Visitors looking to hang out can rest on the stylish lounge-around sofa, which conveniently pulls out to sleep additional guests. New, plush bedding features crisp linens, custom comforters and plenty of fluffy pillows to ensure a sound night's slumber. Bathrooms also received a facelift and now feature new shower curtains, full-length mirrors and hair dryers that are not connected to the wall, giving guests greater flexibility when preparing for the day.

“We’re beyond excited to have travelers make themselves at home in our redesigned spaces,” said Matt James, the new general manager of Courtyard Atlanta Duluth/Gwinnett Place. “The comfort and convenience of our guests is always our main focus, and we can’t wait to see them put the new amenities into action.”

Breaking away from business as usual, the hotel in Gwinnett County, GA added new carpet, paint and vinyl to its two event rooms to create inspiring spaces for productive meetings or intimate weddings or receptions.

Courtyard Atlanta Duluth/Gwinnett Place is located at 3550 Venture Parkway in Duluth, GA. The hotel features 3 floors with 135 rooms, 11 suites, 2 meeting rooms with 1,242 square feet of total event space, a bistro, fitness center and outdoor pool.

###

GwinnettPlaceCID.com | VisitGwinnettPlace.com

Like on Facebook | Follow on Twitter