Gwinnett Place CID Awarded $48,000 From The Atlanta Regional Commission

(Duluth)—To support the Gwinnett Place CID’s work on the Livable Centers Initiative (LCI) in Gwinnett County, the Atlanta Regional Commission announced Wednesday an award of $48,000 to improve connectivity in the area.

The award supplements funding for the current LCI plan to improve the connectivity between Gwinnett Place Mall and McDaniel Farm Park.

“We are honored to have continued support from the Atlanta Regional Commission,” said Joe Allen, GPCID Executive Director. “We look forward to using these funds to further improve transportation and connectivity to the park. We are excited about people having better access to McDaniel Farm Park, its multiuse trails and the historic structures that are found there.”
