

Sanders Financial Management Moves to Larger Office Space

SANDERS FINANCIAL Management, a Gwinnett county-based financial advisory and investment management firm recently announced its move to its new corporate office located at 5550 Triangle Parkway, Suite 300, Norcross, GA 30092. Almost double the size of the company's current location, the new space will accommodate the firm's growing team and client base.

"We're fortunate to have experienced tremendous growth in the last several years," said Emily Sanders, President & CEO, Sanders Financial Management. "We're proud of the new location because it's an integral part of our corporate commitment to serving emerging affluent individuals and families. Our new space meets current and future needs and will enhance operational efficiencies, allowing us to provide exceptional value and superior service to clients."

In addition to the company relocation, new professional roles have been added to the team. Patty Clemmons joined the firm in 2007 as a Portfolio Manager. Kate Westfall, a recent graduate of Harvard University and Mercer University's MBA program, has been hired as a Paraplanner. Shawn Sanders has joined the firm as a Research Analyst in the investment group. Mindy Hernandez, a recent graduate of the University of Georgia, has been an Associate since 2007 and supports the operational needs of new and existing clients.

Sanders Financial Management is also pleased to announce the following promotions:

Owen Malcolm, the firm's Vice President, has been promoted to Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

Ellen Chalef, who has held the role of Accounting Manager since joining the firm in 2005 has been named Chief Financial Officer.

Melissa Cummings, a Client Service Specialist, has been promoted to Financial Planner.

Emily Sanders will be the featured speaker at the upcoming kickoff for the newly revamped Gwinnett's Leadership Organization for Women (GLOW) formerly the Executive Women's Leadership Series. This Aug. 15 program, titled, An Investment to Match Each Purse, will focus on financial management strategies for business women. For more information, contact Nicole Wright, nicole@gwinnettchamber.org.

Emily Sanders,
President & CEO

Elections Set GPCID Board of Directors Positions

JOE PICCOLO, area general manager for the Mall of Georgia and Gwinnett Place Mall, was elected by property owners to the Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District (CID) Board of Directors. Piccolo has been with Simon Property Group for 12 years, and he previously managed Lenox Square and Phipps Plaza.

Additionally, incumbent Leo Weiner was re-elected to his board position. Wiener is a principal and partner with Glenwood Development Company LLC, which specializes in multi-tenant retail properties.

The CID's Board member election also included the appointment of officers for the coming year.

Mark Williams of Printing Trade Company remains Board Chairman; Glenn Wisdom of the JC Penney at Gwinnett Place Mall remains Secretary/Treasurer. Marcy Adams, manager of the Atlanta Marriott Gwinnett Place, was selected to serve as Board Vice Chairman. With Adams' appointment, the Gwinnett Place CID is the only CID in Gwinnett County privileged to have a female serving as a Board officer.

Georgia's Own CU Expands to North Georgia

For over 75 years, Georgia's Own Credit Union has served members throughout the state of Georgia, with branch offices throughout metro-Atlanta, Savannah, and Augusta. In addition to offering credit union membership to employees and family members of over 275 select employee groups, as well as residents of Cherokee, Cobb, Chatham, DeKalb, Fulton, and Gwinnett County, we are pleased to announce that residents of Hall County are now eligible for credit union membership. We look forward to serving this new group of members and are honored to serve the North Georgia community.

New Eco-friendly Branch Opens in Alpharetta

On March 23rd, Georgia's Own Credit Union's Alpharetta Branch relocated to 5825 Windward Parkway. After much anticipation, the Credit Union's first green-friendly branch opened its doors. The official grand opening was celebrated on April 18th. Among those in attendance were Congressman, Tom Price, Greater North Fulton Chamber of Congress President, Brandon Beach, and Alpharetta Mayor Pro Tem, Jim Paine.

