

PRESS RELEASE

July 3, 2006
For Immediate Release

For Further Information Contact:
Joe Allen 678-924-8171

Board Member Scott Rolston to Serve on Gwinnett Comprehensive Plan Update Committee

Rolston advising officials on revisions to foundational planning document

(DULUTH)—Gwinnett Place CID Vice Chairman Scott Rolston has been appointed by County Commissioners to serve on the Gwinnett Planning and Advisory Committee, which will make recommendations for updates to the county's 2030 Comprehensive Plan.

Scott Rolston is the general manager of Gwinnett Place. His professional experience includes almost 20 years in shopping center management in Florida and Georgia.

The Comprehensive Plan guides patterns of future land development and infrastructure improvement throughout Gwinnett. County Commissioners and planning officials will take the committee's recommended changes into consideration before adopting revisions.

"By drawing on the expertise of professionals from a wide variety of backgrounds, Gwinnett County is improving on its model planning document," Rolston said. "I am proud to join in this very important effort, and I will do my best to help produce an even more effective plan."

About the Gwinnett Place CID:

The mission of the CID is to enhance the economic vitality and quality of life in Gwinnett's central business district by strengthening the area's role as the center of commercial, social and recreational activity. The CID is now aggressively engaged in short- and long-term projects designed to alleviate traffic congestion and enhance the greater Gwinnett Place area.