Public Safety Increased In Time For Holiday Shopping Season

DULUTH, Ga., (November 9, 2010) — Prior to the start of the holiday shopping season, the Gwinnett Place CID is increasing its public safety presence.

The CID has contracted with Specialized Intelligence and Security Inc. to provide uniformed security services throughout the remainder of 2010. The added security comes in addition to the CID's daily community patrols and close coordination with Gwinnett County Police, both of which have helped produce double-digit decreases in crime during the last two years.

The CID is offering a unique media opportunity to discuss community safety efforts with representatives of Specialized Intelligence and Security Inc.

Who: Gwinnett Place CID and Specialized Intelligence and Security Inc.

What: Media availability (photos, interviews)

When: 3 p.m. – Monday, Nov. 15

Where: Outside the Gwinnett Commerce Center (3700 Crestwood Parkway – near the intersection of Pleasant Hill Road and I-85 in Duluth)
