

They have learned how to 'dead head' plants and harvest tomatoes.... For the first six years of his life, Colin wouldn't touch fresh tomatoes, but he is now eating grape tomatoes straight off the vine!"

NOTABLE

James Song joins board of directors of Gwinnett Place CID

Property owners from greater Gwinnett Place recently elected local Korean business leader James Song to serve on the Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District (CID) Board of Directors.

Song

Song will serve the remainder of the Post 1 unexpired term through April 2012. The post opened earlier this year when Glenn Wisdom left the board and accepted a staff position with the CID.

Song's addition reflects the expanding diversity of the area's business and property owners, said CID Board Member Joe Piccolo, area general manager for both Mall of Georgia and Gwinnett Place Mall. Song is the first Korean-American elected to the CID's board of directors, and he previously served as a non-voting board adviser.

Song is a general partner with International Shopping Center Group, which specializes in leasing and retail development in shopping centers. He has extensive experiences in small business start-ups and management for 30 years. He also owns and manages a digital camera service firm and 12-screen movie theatre in Duluth.

Gwinnett Tech student selected for Mac-on-Campus honor

Gwinnett Technical College Commercial Photography student Gustavo Romero has been recognized by Mac-On-Campus as its student of the month. The honor earned the student the opportunity to showcase his work on the Mac-On-Campus website, which features 30 of Romero's photographs.

Romero's portfolio can be viewed on the Mac-On-Campus site at www.mac-on-campus.com/Gallery/Portfolio/3678.aspx. The 25-year-old student, who is originally from Cali, Colombia, and now resides in Lawrenceville, enjoys fashion photography and contemporary portraiture. He credits all of his success to the training he has received in Gwinnett Tech's Commercial Photography program. Gwinnett Tech offers an associate degree and diploma in Commercial Photography plus a certificate program for Digital Imaging Specialist.

RECOMMENDED

Gordo's New York Style Pizza, Duluth

"Mark and I tried the new restaurant, Gordo's New York Style Pizza, Wednesday night in Duluth. It was very good! The service was great and they made us feel right at home. I had the Cheese Tortellini ($10) which was delicious and came with