

of Suwanee-based United Technology Group (UTG), where he formerly served as President. He was also named to the MSPmentor 250 that identifies the world's leading technology executives.

Engineer Bryan Lackey is the newly named director of the Department of Planning and Development for Gwinnett County where he has worked since 1995.

Brian Miller will add the role of President to his duties as COO of United Technology Group (UTG). He has also been named to the prestigious MSPmentor 250.

Louise Radloff, representing District 5 on the Gwinnett Board of Education, is the 2012 Georgia's Mother of Achievement.

(GUC) is slated to become the new president and CEO on upon the retirement of Warren Butler. With GUCU since 2003, Foote is credited with establishing a business-lending program.

Bryan Long, Ph.D., is the newly named principal of Dacula High School and has taught in Gwinnett County Public Schools since 1995.

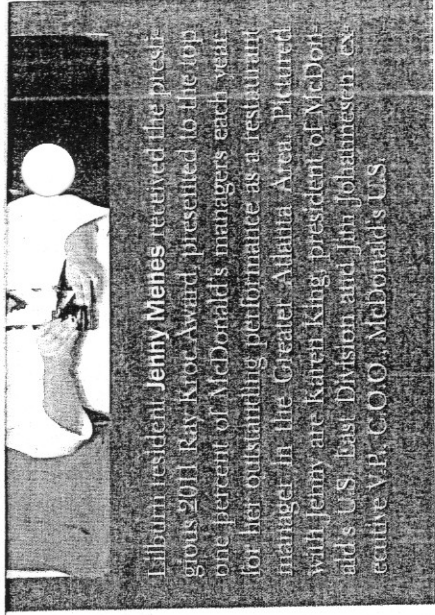

Jim Moore, vice president and agency manager at BB&T Sidney O. Smith Insurance, is the new chairman of The Medical Center Foundation Board of Trustees, Northeast Georgia Medical Center and Health System.

BB&T has promoted Tiffany Powell to banking officer. With BB&T since 2006, Powell, is a financial center leader at BB&T's 2019 Scenic Highway office in Snellville.

Ron Seibenhener will serve a two-year, limited term assignment as the director of Gwinnett County's Department of Water Resources.

The Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District (CID) welcomes Kimberly Morphis to its Board of Directors. She is president of LVK Management Corp., a commercial real estate property management company.

Steve Pudles, CEO of Lawrenceville-based Spectral Response LLC and Chairman of the IPC Association, will deliver the keynote address for the Surface Mount Technology Association (SMTA) Expo and Tech Forum at the Gwinnett Civic Center.

Attorney Kevin J. Tallant, a founding partner of Miles Patterson Hansford Tallant, LLC, will serve as the City of Snellville's legal counsel.