

inside
Gwinnett
Magazine

LEARN MORE ABOUT MBA PROGRAMS
IN THREE LOCATIONS ▶ APPLY NOW

- Home
- About Us »
- Events »

Search

- Arts Events & More »
- Blogs & Contributions »
- Business Profiles »
- Features »
- Food & Dining »
- Life Style »

Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District Expands Vision

September 12, 2012 Community Notices

Leo Wiener,
Chairman, Gwinnett
Place Community
Improvement District

On the evening of August 28, the Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners took a bold step forward and endorsed a future vision for the Greater Gwinnett Place area— Gwinnett County's central business district and the strategic heart of our community.

For the past year, the Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District (CID) has worked in close concert with Gwinnett County, the Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce, area stakeholders and concerned citizens to craft proactive strategies that can dramatically transform greater Gwinnett Place, functionally and aesthetically, into a vibrant mixed-use activity center. The resulting recommendations are market-driven and are aimed at reestablishing the area as the thriving nucleus of

