GACS Junior Parker Jennings wins second Shuler Award

Greater Atlanta Christian School high school junior Parker Jennings of Norcross, pictured at left, has done it again! She captured the Shuler Award for Best Actress at the 2017 Shuler Awards show in her role as Dorothy Banks in 42nd Street. Ms. Jennings won a Shuler last year for Best Supporting Actress for her portrayal of Mrs. Banks in Mary Poppins. The Shuler Awards were televised live on Georgia Public Television on April 20. The event is similar to the Tony Awards, but celebrate excellence in high school musical theatre. Another Gwinnett student, Anna Bragg of Providence Christian School, won first place in Costumes for her work on Mary Poppins at that school’s production.

Gwinnett Place CID adds 2 new board members

Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District (GPCID) has elected two new board members during the annual Caucus of Electors as a part of its monthly board meeting. The new members include Trey Ragsdale of Kaiser Permanente in Georgia, and Craig Hudson at Boehringer Ingelheim Animal Health.

Ragsdale

Trey Ragsdale manages Government and Community Relations for Kaiser Permanente in Georgia. Ragsdale is responsible for securing government and community support for Kaiser Permanente’s healthcare initiatives throughout Georgia. Ragsdale also serves on the Atlanta Regional Commission Workforce Development Board, Gwinnett Chamber Board and Partnership Gwinnett.
