

MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Contact: Joe Allen
Jallen@gwinnettplacecid.com
678-924-8171

Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners Appoints June Towery to Board of Directors of Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District

(DULUTH)—The Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners (BOC) appointed attorney June Towery on Tuesday, March 17th to the Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District’s Board of Directors. Towery’s appointment was unanimously approved by the BOC.

I’m looking forward to working with the CID board as we continue to make great improvements to the Gwinnett Place area," said June Towery.

“Towery brings unique professional experience to the board,” said District 1 Gwinnett County Commissioner Jace Brooks. “She offers exceptional professional experience that will be a major asset to the Gwinnett Place CID.”

“We are excited to have June on the Gwinnett Place CID’s (GPCID) Board of Directors” said Joe Allen, GPCID’s Executive Director. “Towery’s experience and dedication to the community makes her a great addition to our leadership team.”

June Towery is a partner at the Atlanta law firm of Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough. She specializes in corporate law, foreign investment, immigration and international law. June is the immediate past president of the Korean Southeast U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the founding president of the Korean American Bar Association of Georgia. She also serves the Regional Governor for the International Association of Korean Lawyers. June is a graduate of the University of Georgia School of Law.

