

OS National to expand headquarters operations, create more than 1,000 jobs in Gwinnett County

(GWINNETT-METRO ATLANTA) April 9, 2019 – Partnership Gwinnett in conjunction with The Georgia Department of Economic Development announced today that OS National LLC (OSN), a nationally recognized title and escrow provider, will create more than 1,000 jobs and invest more than $15 million in their headquarters in Gwinnett County.

“It’s a great day in Georgia when an existing industry announces an expansion,” said Georgia Department of Economic Development Commissioner Pat Wilson. “Not only does this announcement put a spotlight on the state’s thriving pro-business environment which is supportive of new and existing businesses, but also on the economic development resources available to companies in Gwinnett County.”

OSN is a nationally recognized provider of residential and commercial title and escrow services. Headquartered in the Gwinnett Place Community Improvement District (CID) in unincorporated Gwinnett County – the company celebrated their six-year anniversary in March 2019.

“In selecting Gwinnett county for our national headquarters we believe we can support OS National’s explosive growth and strategic expansion efforts across the U.S.,” said Jamie Wunder, Managing Partner of OS National. “We recognize the county’s efforts providing businesses excellent options for growth and helping to grow a rich and diverse talent pool for the future.”

“This announcement is further proof that Gwinnett provides the ideal location, talented workforce and pro-business environment necessary for industry leaders like OS National to thrive,” said Gwinnett County Commission Chair Charlotte Nash. “We look forward to continuing our strong partnership with the company and ensuring its future success in our community.”

OSN employs over 500 associates in four states and helps provide title insurance and escrow services to institutional clients and national lending and banking institutions on both residential and commercial transactions.

“We are excited that OSNational has chosen to expand in the Gwinnett Place area,” said Gwinnett Place CID Executive Director Joe Allen. “OS National is a well-respected industry leader who has found the ideal mix of talent, access and resources in our district. We want to congratulate them on their expansion and we look forward to their continued growth here.”

Senior Director of Economic Development, Andrew Carnes represented Partnership Gwinnett in conjunction with the Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDEcD) and the Gwinnett County Office of Economic Development.

“We are always happy to work with companies to establish a new location in Gwinnett, but when an existing Gwinnett business chooses to re-invest and bring more jobs to the local community, it speaks volumes to our strong business ecosystem and the available resources that a thriving business needs to succeed,” said Partnership Gwinnett Senior Director of Economic Development Andrew Carnes.
